ATTENDEE PROFILE

The Mississippi Headache Symposium is designed for all healthcare professionals that see patients with headaches. Yes, that means from the pediatrician, to the allergist and the neurologist, we welcome all. Licensed healthcare providers are invited from a variety of practice areas in hospitals, urgent care centers and private or rural clinics across the southeastern United states. It is important to note that we are particularly targeting providers in our neighboring states of Louisiana, Arkansas, Tennessee, Alabama and the Florida panhandle. This conference is within driving distance from all those regions, and we will be offering over 20 hours of approved CME for only $100, which is far below the price of a typical conference registration fee. Presenters will be accessible to attendees at all times, as this is not a destination resort conference.

Doctors, Nurse Practitioners, Physicians Assistants, Fellows and Residents practicing in all of the following areas are encouraged to attend:

- Orofacial Pain Dentists/Surgeons

The Headache Center Institute: United with one purpose
The Headache Center Institute proudly supports medical professionals and patients by promoting headache medicine education, headache research and patient advocacy groups. We know that every piece of the puzzle is a necessary ingredient for success. Our project serves 5 core areas:

01 CLINICAL RESEARCH
Clinical studies are a critical part of the ongoing effort to develop more effective treatment options for headache disorders. The Headache Neurology Research Institute is currently participating in 7 national and international clinical trials to establish safety and efficacy of new emerging headache treatment options.

02 PRACTITIONER TRAINING
Migraine is the first cause of disability under 50, yet there is a critical shortage of qualified headache specialists. The Headache Center Fellowship will provide clinical training in headache management and best practices established by consensus guidelines.

03 LEGISLATIVE CHANGE
The World Health Alliance describes migraine as a “forgotten epidemic” due to the significant disproportion of national funding appropriated towards headache research. Partnering with Miles for Migraine, we actively support the annual lobbying event Headache on the Hill.

04 PUBLIC AWARENESS
The World Health Organization recognizes migraine as one of the most disabling diseases, comparable to dementia, quadriplegia, and active psychosis. Despite this fact, patients with headache disorders rarely receive the empathy and accommodations required for survival. The Annual Mississippi Headache Symposium was developed to improve headache education among local healthcare providers, while the Annual Miles for Migraine event spotlights the disease for the community.

05 PATIENT SUPPORT
The stigma associated with headache disorders often causes sufferers to feel isolated. The Headache Center facilitates patient-led support groups for both migraine and cluster headache. Financial assistance for expensive treatment options is offered based on need and income.

There are an estimated 39 million headache sufferers in the United States today. With fewer than 500 Certified Headache Specialists available to treat them, they are facing a crisis of care.

MIGRAINE IS THE 6TH LARGEST CAUSE OF DISABILITY IN THE WORLD

HEADACHE DISORDERS CAUSE 1.2 MILLION EMERGENCY ROOM VISITS IN THE US EVERY YEAR

HEALTHCARE COSTS ARE 70% HIGHER FOR FAMILIES WITH A MIGRAINE SUFFERER

Headache patients are truly suffering, and their burden isn’t confined to typical headache symptoms. Studies have found that migraine sufferers attempt suicide at a higher rate than people without migraine, are 2.5 times more likely to suffer from depression, and are 12 times more likely to suffer from panic attacks.

Nevertheless, there is a critical shortage of qualified providers in headache medicine. There are currently fewer than 500 Certified Headache Specialists in the United States, and patients seeking treatment typically face 6-15 months on a waiting list before they even receive an initial consultation. As result, of the estimated 39 million headache sufferers in the United States today:

- 96% WILL NEVER SEE A HEADACHE SPECIALIST
- 50% WILL BE MISDIAGNOSED
- 88% WILL NOT RECEIVE APPROPRIATE TREATMENT

Created to address this critical shortage of qualified practitioners, the program provides licensed healthcare professionals with hands-on clinical training in the practice of the headache specialty. Students are immersed in a working Headache Specialty clinic, learning from some of the nation’s top experts in Headache Medicine and shadowing a headache specialist on a one-on-one basis. The Fellowship is currently accepting applications for both students and employers.
